Available Scholarships and Grants

Scholarships

Hazel Fishwood - Candidates for this scholarship must show evidence of acceptance into a program of their choice. Preference will be given in the following order: pursuit of a post-doctoral study, pursuit of a doctoral degree, pursuit of a master's degree, a postdoctoral study, a doctoral study, a master's study or a general graduate study.

Emma Henkle – This scholarship is available for graduate study, preferably in the field of language arts, including foreign or technological languages as well as drama and music.

State Founders and State Presidents - This fund is for candidates pursuing graduate studies. One of the selected awards will be designated in the name of Bernice Conoly for each scholarship year.

Isabelle Huston Commemorative Scholarship – This fund is for graduate study, special certification, and studies or projects advancing educational excellence.

Personal Enrichment Commemorative Scholarship - This fund is for short term programs such as Roads Scholars or similar study groups, workshops, seminars, conferences, and non-credit courses that will aid in personal growth.

* All members are eligible for three scholarships in your lifetime.*

Grants

Available Grants for non-members of the Oregon State DKG Organization

The Dagmar Jeppeson Grant is for grant applicants pursuing Early Childhood /Elementary through 8th grade certifications.

The Edith Green Grant is for grant applicants who are pursuing secondary certifications.

The Scholarship and Grants Committee will read each application and determine which applicant or applicants with receive an award. The committee will also select which scholarship fund best matches the proposal submitted by the candidate. The applicants will be notified within 60 days after the due date if they are receiving an award.

Collegiate members are eligible for scholarships. Collegiate non-members are eligible for grants with the support of a state chapter or a member of the OSO State Leadership.

Revised 01-24-26